Are you eligible for a rebate?

If you hold a current concession card and/or Seniors Card, you might be eligible for a concession rebate on your Horizon Power account. There are a number of rebates available depending on the concession card you hold.

Remember to let us know each time you get a new card too so that the rebates continue to be applied to your account. You don't need to reapply but you do need to update your records with us.

Please contact us on 1800 267 926 for more information or to let us know your new card details.

ENERGY SAVING TIP

Look for the stars and save

If you're buying new appliances, look for the energy star label to make choosing energy efficient models easier. Each extra star will save you between 15 and 30 per cent in running costs.

The more stars the more efficient the appliance. So for long term savings, choose an appliance with the greatest number of stars and the lowest annual energy consumption.

Am I eligible?

The Scheme applies to regional residents in receipt of a Centrelink Age Pension, Carer Payment, Disability Support Pension, Wife Pension or (prior 1995) Widow B Pension or a Department of Veterans' Affairs Service Pension, Social Security Age Pension or Income Support Supplement. One card per couple will be issued.

Yes. At your discretion, the Fuel Card may be used to purchase fuel for your transport needs or to pay for taxi fares therefore you do not have to hold a driver's licence or own a vehicle to qualify for the Fuel Card.

Will the Fuel Card affect my pension?

Currently there is no impact on your Commonwealth payment. The Commonwealth Government has advised that the Scheme is exempt from the social security income test until 30 June 2012. Should any changes be introduced all Fuel Card recipients will be notified as soon as possible.

How long will it take for my application to be processed?

The card may take about four weeks to arrive in the mail.

Where can I use my Fuel Card?

The card can be used at any participating Western Australian service station. Visit www.RoyaltiesforRegions.wa.gov.au/fuelcard or call 1300 666 609 to find out about participating fuel outlets.

How will I know what Taxi's will accept the card?

Taxis displaying the Cabcharge logo are participating in the scheme. Please ask the taxi company if they accept Cabcharge when you order a taxi.

I had a card last year - do I need to reapply?

Providing records of your personal details are correct (name, addresses) and your pension and country residence eligibility is unchanged you will automatically be issued a new card in July, each year of the scheme.

I share accommodation with another eligible pensioner - am I entitled to my own card?

Yes, if you are not defined as a couple by Centrelink www.centrelink.gov.au you may both apply.

GLIMPSSES OF THE PAST

The Unknown Australian Soldier

Twentieth century warfare resulted in millions of unknown dead resting in unknown graves. Of Australia's war dead from World War I and World War II, 35 527 (about 35 per cent) have no identified grave. They are commemorated on Memorials to the Missing.

The names of many Australians who died in World War I appear on memorials along the Western Front, including the names of about 18 000 men of the Australian Imperial Force with 'no known grave'.

In 1993, to mark the 75th anniversary of the 1918 armistice, the Australian Government exhumed the remains of an unknown Australian soldier from the Adelaide War Cemetery, near Villers-Bretonneux, France for entombment in the Australian War Memorial's Hall of Memory, Canberra.

The funeral for the Unknown Soldier was held on 11 November – Remembrance Day – 1993. Before proceeding to the Hall of Memory, the Unknown Soldier's coffin was placed on the Stone of Remembrance outside the Memorial where the then Prime Minister, the Hon Paul Keating, delivered the eulogy:

... We will never know who this Australian was. Yet he has always been among those we have honoured. We know that he was one of the 45,000 Australians who died on the Western Front, one of the 416,000 Australians who volunteered for service in World War I ... and one of the 100,000 Australians who have died in wars this century. He is all of them. And he is one of us ...

As Australia's Unknown Soldier was laid to rest in the Hall of Memory, the late Robert Comb, a World War I veteran, who had served in battles on the Western Front, sprinkled soil from Pozieres, France, over the coffin and said, "Now you're home, mate".
